MANDATORY SECTION 3: LIABILITY WAIVER – MUST BE SIGNED BY ALL PARTICIPANTS

Oregon Cutting horse Association (OCHA) is a non-profit cutting horse association. I will hold Oregon Cutting Horse Association or any of its agents, officers, volunteers, sponsors, employees or stock contractors, free and harmless of any claims, suit, demand or judgment against any person, company or corporation, which resulted or was caused by my attendance or participation in any event related to the OCHA. I further agree that I shall not make any claim against the Oregon Cutting Horse Association any owners, managers of the facilities or grounds utilized, or said persons named above for any injury and/or damage to myself or horse resulting from my participation. Non-members agree to all liability waivers and agree to compete at their own risk at an OCHA event. OCHA does not require Equestrian Protective headgear, by signing you waive all claims in results of an accident/injury resulting from not wearing the Equestrian Protective headgear. The undersigned also does hereby assent that this agreement shall be binding upon his/her heirs, executors, or administrators.

By signing you waive claims for all participants listed on the membership application.
