

PCCHA Region Year End Finals

A separate set of standings for shows held in the North, Central and South of the PCCHA regions. Details as follows:

1. A one round shootout of PCCHA North, South & West region standings.
2. Clean slate shootout finals to be held following year at a place (show) TBD.
3. Top 5 in each region for each weekend class come together for a Finals after the show year (see class list below.)
4. 2020 – Begin when cutting starts again either May or June through the end of the normal calendar show year.
5. For years 2021 and thereafter, point year begins on normal NCHA calendar show year.
6. Each region has own set of Standings kept by PCCHA.
7. Does not interfere with existing PCCHA yearend standings.
8. Only results from shows that are PCCHA approved will count for Region standings.
9. Finals to take place in either January or February of the following point year.
10. Once entries for the Finals are open, contestants must pre-enter.
11. If someone cannot attend, the office will move to the next person in line to fill 5 positions.
12. If someone qualifies in both regions in the same class, they must announce which region they will represent so the next person on the list in the Region affected may be offered the open position.
13. Money and prizes to be awarded to finals participants only.
14. Free 1 year PCCHA Membership to those who have never been a member or has not had a membership in the past 5 years.
